"Dorcas" is the title of the new musical comedy by Paulton, which Miss Pauline Hall will use this season, departing from comic opera and its abuses. It will be a pleasant change, for the indications are that comic opera companies will be very plentiful, and it will be a case of the survival of the fittest.

Della Fox wants to open her season before De Wolf Hopper begins his at the Broadway. She is anxious to get in a week ahead of him. Owing to the predicament in which the non-completion of "The Little Recruit" has placed her. It is doubtful whether she will be able to present it as early as she hoped to do so. In the mean time, Hopper is hearsing night and day, and "Dr. Syntax" is slowly assuming shape. Mrs. Hopper will have a very pretty role, but the vocal calisthenics will be intrusted to Miss Bertha Waltzinger.

A large lady entered one of the dramatic agencies yesterday and announced the fact that she wanted an engagement. Times are so hard, she said, "that there's nothing for me to do but go upon the stage. Of course, I don't want a siar part. It's money I'm after, not glory," And what is your line of business?" asked the agent. "Oh" repiled the large lady, in the most nonohalant manner. "I've been in a cigarette factory for the last five years, but they are discharging their hands, so I'm driven out." Perhaps there will be room for the ex-cigarette-maker in Miss Madeleine Pollard's company.

"A Trip to the City" is the name of a new specialty farce to be produced by the Francis Seymour Amusement Company, of which Nell Burgess is Fresident. It will rejoice in "miles of scenery," which is better than the now hackneyed carload, and its main "specialty" features will consist of a pleasure launch sailing party on New York Bay, and a bicycle race around Union Square.

A. O. Duncan, the ventriloquist, has published a number of new songs of the sweetly sentimental order. Some of them are "The Butterfly and the Rose," "After the Curtain Falls," "Cheer up, Sad Heart." "The Secret of the Waves," "When the Twilight Shadows Fall," "Baby is Waiting to Kiss Mc Good Night," "When the Clouds Appear," "The Motto Above the Door," and "Twas in a Dream." In this long list there is no mention of poor mother, or the loved ones at home. Can this slight be intentional?
